

Information in accordance with Art. 13 GDPR for registration and participation in the idea contest within the European Week of Waste Reduction

Public relations is one of the legal requirements of the Albert-Ludwigs-University of Freiburg. In this context, the students of the Master's program Environmental Governance, the Department of Environmental Protection, the Studierendenwerk Freiburg and the Zero Waste shop Glaskiste unverpackt GmbH are organising this idea contest. For the contest, it is necessary to collect the personal data provided in the participation form from the participants. Further data will be collected from the prize winners during the course of the competition, which is required in particular for the distribution of prizes and press coverage. Hereafter, we would like to inform you about the purpose and further terms of data processing for the contest.

III. Purpose of data processing and consequences of failure to provide information:

In order to complete and confirm your registration and to participate in the competition, personal data supplied by you must be collected and processed. Without this information, the registration cannot be carried out and you cannot participate in this contest.

IV. Legal basis for data processing

The legal basis for the data processing associated with the handling of the registration and the execution of the competition is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f GDPR in conjunction with Art. 6 Para. 3 GDPR in conjunction with Art. 4 LDSG (Data Protection Act of the State of Baden-Wuerttemberg).

V. Recipient of your data

In the course of the competition, the organizers will deliver your data to the following recipients:

1. Members of the jury

At the end of the submission period the eight members of the jury will be informed of the first and last name as well as the submitted entries to conduct the selection of the winners*. All members of the jury are reminded that the data may only be used for the purpose of the event and must be destroyed at the end of the event.

2. The public

The contributions of the winners* will be publicly available in printed publications, online and on social media. If necessary, the respective participants will be asked in due time to give their consent.

3. Press

The first and last names and, with their consent, a portrait photo of the award winners* will be passed on to local and regional media representatives for the purpose of press coverage.

VI. Duration of storage

1. After the end of the competition, i.e. about one to two months after the end of the last communication of the results, the first and last names, e-mail addresses and addresses of the participants will be deleted and respectively destroyed
2. Except for those contributions which can be implemented and will therefore be further processed

VII. Your rights

1. You have the right to obtain information from the University of Freiburg about the data stored about you and/or to have incorrectly stored data corrected
2. You also have the right to have your data deleted or to restrict or object their processing.
3. if you wish to assert your rights as a data subject against the Albert-Ludwigs-University of Freiburg, please contact datenschutz@uni-freiburg.de
4. You also have the right to revoke your consent at any time if you have given your consent at a later date to have your name published in the context of the exhibition or - in the case of a prize - to have your name and your portrait picture forwarded to the press and to have your bank details processed. This revocation does not affect the lawfulness of the processing of your data that has taken place based on your consent until the revocation. In case of revocation, please contact nachhaltig@uni-freiburg.de.
5. You also have the right to complain to a data protection supervisory authority if you believe that, the processing of your personal data violates your rights.

Such supervisory authority is the State Officer for Data Protection and Freedom of Information of Baden-Württemberg, Königsstraße 10 a, 70173 Stuttgart.
